

[56 & 57 Vict.] Metropolitan Commons (Banstead) [Ch. cvii.] Supplemental Act, 1893.

SCHEDULE.

THE METROPOLITAN COMMONS ACTS, 1866 to 1878.

Scheme With Respect To Banstead Downs, Banstead Heath, Burgh Heath, and Park Downs.

Description of commons and management by Conservators

1. The pieces of land with the ponds and roads thereon, commonly called or known by the names of Banstead Downs, Banstead Heath, Burgh Heath, and Park Downs, and the small piece of waste, with the Jubilee Tree planted thereon, all situate in the parish of Banstead, in the county of Surrey, as the same are delineated in a plan deposited with the Board of Agriculture, and thereon coloured green, and are herein-after collectively referred to as "The Commons," shall henceforth, for all the purposes of this scheme, be regulated and managed by a body of Conservators to be styled "the Banstead Commons Conservators."

First Conservators

2. The first Conservators shall be the following persons, namely :—Two persons to be nominated (if they think fit) by the owners for the time being of the soil of the commons, if they can agree upon two persons to be so nominated, or in default of agreement, by the owners for the time being of the largest extent in area of the commons, such nomination to be in writing under the hands or seals of the owners so appointing, and the following six persons, that is to say: the Hon. Francis Henry Baring, Walter Samuel James Brown, William Hodson, Peter Robertson Rodger, Sir Charles Russell, Q.C., M.P., and Thomas Claye Shaw.

Term of office of Conservators

3. The first and all succeeding Conservators nominated by the owners of the soil of the commons as aforesaid shall hold office until their nominations are revoked or other persons are nominated in their place by such owners of the soil as aforesaid. As to the other six of the first Conservators, two of them shall go out of office in the month of April next following the confirmation of this scheme by Act of Parliament, and two in the month of April in each of the two succeeding years.

Going out of office of Conservators

4. At some meeting of the Conservators held before the month of April next following the confirmation of this scheme by Act of Parliament, it shall be determined by lot which two of the last-mentioned first Conservators shall go out of office in the said month of April, and which in the month of April in each of the two succeeding years.

Conservators other than the first six

5. The Conservators other than the first shall consist of two persons nominated as aforesaid by the owners of the soil of the commons, and of six persons to be elected by the vestry of the Parish of Banstead, which six persons are herein referred to as the "elected Conservators." The term of office of the elected Conservators shall be three years, and the two elected Conservators who have been longest in office without re-election shall go out of office each year.

Election of Conservators

6. Election of Conservators in the place of those going out of office shall be made by the vestry of the parish of Banstead at a meeting to be held in the month of March or April.

Vacancies

7. Any elected Conservator after going out of office, resigning, or otherwise ceasing to be a Conservator may be again elected a Conservator. Should any vacancy in the number of Conservators arise by death, resignation, or otherwise, between the times fixed for election as aforesaid, or if at any time there shall not be a full member of Conservators, the Conservators for the time being shall continue to be as competent to act as if no such vacancy or deficiency in number had occurred. Provided that in the case of any vacancy occurring in the number of elected Conservators, the vestry shall, as soon as conveniently may be, elect some proper person as a Conservator to supply such vacancy, but the person so elected shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Conservator would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

No bankrupt etc to be a Conservator

8. No bankrupt or person who has compounded with his creditors shall be capable of being or continuing a Conservator.

No Conservators to receive remuneration

9. No Conservator shall receive any remuneration or hold any. office of profit under this scheme.

Acts of Conservators not to be invalidated

10. Any act of the Conservators shall not be. invalidated or be illegal by reason of there being any vacancy among the Conservators, or by reason of any person not qualified, or ceasing to be qualified, acting as a Conservator, or by reason of any irregularity, failure, or omission whatsoever in or about any election, or in or about any matter preliminary or incidental thereto.

Meetings of Conservators

11. The Conservators shall held meetings for transacting business under this scheme twice at least in every year, and at such other times as may be necessary, for properly executing their powers and duties under this scheme, and shall from time to time make regulations with respect to the summoning, notice, place, management, and adjournment of such meetings, and generally with respect to the transaction and management of business by the Conservators under this scheme. Provided always, that no business shall be transacted at any such meeting unless three Conservators at least are present thereat, and all questions shall be decided by a majority of votes, and the names of the Conservators present shall be recorded; and the Conservators shall annually appoint one of their number to be chairman for one year at all meetings at which he is present, and in case the chairman so appointed be absent from any meeting at the time appointed for holding the same, the Conservatory present shall appoint one of their number to act as chairman thereat, and in case the chairman appointed as first aforesaid shall die, resign, or become incapable of acting, another conservator shall he appointed to be chairman for the period during which the person so dying, resigning, or becoming incapable, would have been entitled to continue in office, and the chairman at any meeting shall have a second or easting vote in case of an equality of votes.

Incorporation of Conservators

12. The Conservators may from time to time provide and maintain such offices as may be necessary for transacting their business and that of their officers and servants under this scheme. "The Conservators shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, and shall have a common seal. Documents or copies of documents purporting to proceed from the Conservators, all to be sealed or stamped with their seal, shall be received as prima facie evidence in all courts and places whatsoever.

Proceedings of Conservators

13. The Conservators shall cause entries of all proceedings of the Conservators, and of every committee appointed by them, with the names of the Conservators who shall attend each meeting, to be duly made from time to time in books to be provided for the purpose, which shall be kept by the clerk under the superintendence of the Conservators, and every such entry shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings took place, and such entry so signed shall be received as evidence in every court and before all judges, justices, and others, without proof of such meeting: having been duly convened and held, or of the persons attending such meeting having been or being Conservators or members of committees respectively, or of the signature of the chairman, or of the fact of his having been chairman, all of which last-mentioned matters :shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, and such book shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any of the Conservators.

Appointment of officers

14. The Conservators may from time to time appoint and employ a clerk, treasurer, commons-keepers, collectors, and other officers and servants as may be necessary and proper for the preservation of order on, and the enforcement of byelaws with respect to, the commons, and otherwise for the purposes of this scheme, and may make rules for regulating the duties and conduct of the several officers and servants so appointed and employed (altering such rules as occasion may require), and the Conservators may pay out of the moneys to be received under this scheme to such officers and servants such reasonable wages, salaries, or allowance, as they may think proper, and every such officer and servant shall be removable by the Conservators at their pleasure.

Protection and improvement of commons

15. The Conservators may execute any works of drainage, raising, levelling, or fencing, for the protection and improvement of the commons, so far only as may be required for the purposes of the Metropolitan Commons Acts, 1866. to 1878, and may do any work necessary for the proper cleansing of the ponds on the commons, and shall preserve the turf, shrubs, trees, plants, and grass thereon, and for this purpose may enclose by fences for short periods such portions as may require rest to revive the same, and may plant trees and shrubs for shelter or ornament, but shall do nothing that may otherwise vary or alter the natural features or aspect of the commons, or interfere with free access to every part thereof.

Encroachment and enclosure

16. The Conservators shall maintain the commons, as delineated in the plan deposited with the Board of Agriculture, free of all encroachment, and shall not permit any trespass on, or partial or other enclosure of, any part thereof, and no fences, rails, sheds, or buildings, whether used in connection with the playing of games or not, or other matters or things, shall be maintained, fixed, or erected thereon, nor shall ice be taken off the ponds on the commons without the consent in writing of the Conservators.

Games, etc

17. The Conservators may set apart such portion or portions of the commons as they may consider expedient for games, and may form any cricket ground or grounds, and may allow the same to be temporarily enclosed with posts and chains or other open fence, so as to prevent cattle and horses straying thereon, Provided that the Conservators shall not so exercise their powers under this scheme as to interfere without consent or the payment of compensation with the rights, if any, of the lord of the manor or owners of the soil to let the shooting on the commons or to let places on the commons for the playing of games or the training of horses.

Byelaws

18. The Conservators shall frame byelaws and regulations for the prevention of nuisances and the preservation of order upon the commons, The byelaws may include any of the following purposes, viz

The prevention of encroachments, and of the deposit of road-sand, materials for the repair of the roads, dung, rubbish, flints, wood, or other matter on, and of the illegal taking, cutting, digging, and selling the turf, sods, gravel, sand, or other substances from, the commons, and of the illegal cutting, felling, or injuring the gorse, heather, timber, or other trees, shrubs, brushwood, or other plants for the time being growing thereon, and of the removal of ice from the ponds.

The prevention of injury to or the defacing or removing of seats, fences, or barriers, or notice boards, or other things put up or maintained by the Conservators on the commons,

The prevention of injury to or disfigurement of fences or trees on the Common by the posting of bills, placards, or notices.

The prevention of bird-catching, illegal setting of traps, gins, or nets, or liming trees, or laying snares of any description for birds or other animals, taking of birds' eggs or nests, and illegal shooting or chasing of game or other animals on the commons or brought there for the purpose of being shot or chased.

The regulation, subject to clause 17, of games to be played and other means of recreation on the commons, and of assemblages of persons thereon.

The prevention or regulation of vehicles being driven or horses being exercised by grooms or others on or across the commons,

The exclusion, removal, and apprehension, if necessary, of gamblers, card sharers, gypsies, squatters, vagrants, sellers and exhibitors of infamous books, prints, photographs, or of pictures, or persons guilty of brawling, fighting, or quarrelling, or using indecent and improper language, or any idle or disorderly person, so that all such persons may be dealt with according to law.

The regulation as to place and mode of digging and taking gravel, sand, or other substances from, and of cutting and felling of trees and underwood growing upon, the commons, in exercise of any right of common or other right over or upon the commons.

The prevention of unauthorised persons From turning out or knowingly Permitting cattle, sheep, or other animals to graze or feed or remain upon the commons, and generally for the prevention or restraint of any act or thing tending to the injury or disfigurement of the commons, or to interfere with the use thereof by the public for the purposes of exercise and recreation.

Provided that all byelaws made by the Conservators shall be in writing under their seal, and the Conservators may by such byelaws impose upon offenders against the same such reasonable penalties, to be recovered on summary conviction, as they shall think fit, not exceeding the sum of five pounds for each offence, and in the case of a continuing offence a further penalty not exceeding the sum of forty shillings for each day on which the offence is continued after conviction therefor ; and the Conservators may alter or repeal any byelaws by other byelaws sealed as aforesaid, and may make other byelaws as they may from time to time think fit. Provided always, that all byelaws imposing any penalty shall be so framed as to allow of the recovery of any sum less than the full amount of the penalty. Provided always, that no byelaws shall be repugnant to the laws of England or the provisions of this scheme, and no byelaws, or any alteration or repeal of any byelaws, shall be of any force or effect unless and until the same be confirmed by the Local Government Board. Provided that a copy of any byelaws, signed and certified by the clerk of the Conservators to be a true copy, and to have been duly confirmed, shall be evidence, until the contrary is proved, in all legal proceedings of the due making, confirmation, and existence of such byelaws without further proof. Provided also, that no byelaws shall be confirmed unless notice of intention to apply for confirmation thereof shall have been given in one or more of the London daily morning newspapers, and a newspaper circulating in the parish of Banstead, one calendar month at least before any such application. A copy of the proposed byelaws shall be kept at the office of the Conservators, and be open during office hours thereat to the inspection of the ratepayers of the parish of Banstead, and other persons interested, without fee or reward; and the Conservators shall furnish every such person applying for the same with a copy thereof, or of any part thereof, on payment of sixpence for every one hundred words contained in such copy.

Byelaws to be made public

19. All byelaws made by the Conservators in pursuance of this scheme shall be printed, and shall be sold to any person who may apply for the same at such price, net exceeding one shilling per copy, as the Conservators may determine ; and all byelaws shall be legibly written or printed at length on boards of suitable size, and placed on such parts of the commons (not less than four) as to the Conservators may appear desirable.

As to laying drains etc

20. Except for the Conservators for the purposes of this scheme, and for the owner or owners of the soil, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons without the consent in writing of such owner or owners and the consent in writing of the Conservator to form, build, or lay any sewer, drain, pipe, waterway or other matter of a like nature in, into, or under any part or parts of the commons.

As to turning out animals on the commons

21. Except for those persons who now are entitled to do so, it shall not be lawful to turn out on the commons, or any part thereof, for grazing any cattle, sheep, or other animal.

Subscriptions etc

22. The Conservators shall be at liberty to receive and apply for the purposes of this scheme, or any of them, any subscriptions or donations applicable thereto that may come to their hands.

Accounts to be kept

23. The Conservators shall cause books to be provided and kept, and true and regular accounts to be entered therein of all sums of money received and paid for and on account of this scheme, and of the several purposes for which such sums of money shall have been received and paid, which books shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any of the Conservators, and of any ratepayer of the parish of Banstead, without fee or reward, and the Conservators and ratepayers, or any of them, may take copies of, or extracts from, such books without paying anything for the same.

Accounts to be balanced yearly

24. The Conservators shall cause their accounts to be balanced in each year to the thirty-first day of December, or to some other day to be fixed by them from time to time.

Accounts to be audited

25. An auditor of the accounts, not being a Conservator, shall be from time to time appointed by the chairman of quarter sessions for the County of Surrey, who shall fix his remuneration.

Audit of accounts, Appeal

26. The auditor shall attend, within one month after the day to which the accounts have been balanced, at the office of the Conservators, or at some other convenient place to be appointed by the Conservators, and from time to time shall, in the presence of the clerk of the Conservators if he desire to be present, proceed to audit the accounts of the Conservators for the year preceding such day, and the Conservators shall, by their clerk or otherwise, produce and lay before the auditor the Conservators' accounts, accompanied with proper vouchers, and all books, papers, and writings in their custody or power relating thereto, and any person interested in the accounts, either as a creditor of the Conservators or otherwise, may he present at the audit of the accounts by himself or his agent, and may make any objection to any part of the accounts, and if the accounts be found correct the auditor shall sign the same in token of his allowance thereof, but if the auditor thinks there is just cause to disapprove of any part of the accounts he, or any other person interested in the accounts, may appeal against any parts of the accounts which shall be disapproved of to one of the two next quarter sessions for the county of Surrey, notice in writing of such appeal being given to the clerk of the Conservators fourteen days at least before the hearing of such appeal.

Hearing of appeal

27. Upon the hearing of such appeal, the justices may make such order as they think fit respecting the payment of the costs of the appellant out of the moneys coming to the hands of the Conservators, or otherwise, as they think fit, and each order shall be final.

Police

28. For purposes of police the commons shall be deemed a place of public resort, and the powers and duties of police constables in relation to public safety and preservation of order and protection of property shall extend thereto.

Apprehension of offenders against byelaws

29. Any constable, or any officer of the Conservators, being in uniform or authorised by the Conservators in writing, which authority he shall produce on demand, and any person called by such constable or officer to his assistance, may, without any other warrant than this scheme, seize and detain any person offending, or having offended, against any byelaw of the Conservators whose name and residence shall be unknown to and cannot be ascertained by such constable or officer, and such constable or officer shall convey him with all convenient despatch before a justice to be dealt with according to law.

Proceedings against offenders

30. Proceedings with a view to the summary conviction of offenders under this scheme or under any byelaws of the Conservators, or to the recovery of any money or expenses authorised to be recovered summarily, or to any other order to be made by justices under this scheme or any such byelaw, shall be taken before a court of summary jurisdiction according to the provisions of the Summary Jurisdiction Acts. Any pecuniary penalty, expenses, or costs, or other money recovered by the Conservators shall, notwithstanding anything in any other Act, be paid to the Conservators, and shall be applied by them for the purposes of this scheme.

An elector not disabled from acting as a justice

31. A person shall not be disabled from acting as a justice or otherwise in any matter arising under or in relation to this scheme by reason of his being an elector under this scheme.

Proceedings not to be quashed

32. No proceeding to be had touching the conviction of any offender under this scheme, nor any order or other matter or thing whatsoever made, done, or transacted in or relating to the execution of this scheme shall be vacated, quashed, or set aside for want of form.

Incorporation of Commissioners Clauses Act 1847

33. The clauses of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to contracts to be entered into and the deeds to be executed by commissioners and with respect to giving notices and orders, proof of debt in bankruptcy, and tender of amends (as far as the same are applicable for the purposes of and not inconsistent with this scheme) are hereby incorporated with this scheme.

Power to apply for new or amended scheme

34. The Conservators may at any time apply for an amended or a new scheme.

Savings of Rights

35. Saving always to all persons and bodies politic and corporate, and their respective heirs, successors, executors, and administrators, all such estates, interests, or rights of a profitable or beneficial nature in, over, or affecting the commons, or any part thereof, as they or any of them had before the confirmation of this scheme by Act of Parliament, or could or might have enjoyed if this scheme had not been confirmed by Act of Parliament, except only so far as any such estates, interests, or rights shall be purchased or acquired or otherwise compensated for by the Conservators, whether by agreement or compulsorily.

Rights Claimed

36. The lord of the manor of Banstead, or persons deriving title under him, claim the soil and freehold of the commons and the minerals under the same, The Right Honourable the Earl of Abingdon and the Reverend the Honourable Alberie Edward Bertie claim an estate in fee simple, and all the rights of the lord of the manor, subject only to the rights of common of the tenants of the manor of Banstead entitled thereto in those portions of the commons called Banstead Heath and Banstead Downs, Charles Ellis Bird and George Henderson, as trustees of the will of John Lambert, deceased, claim an estate in fee simple, subject only to the rights of common, if any, of the tenants of the manor of Banstead entitled thereto in that portion of the commons called Park Downs, The lord of the manor of Tadworth claims to be owner in feo of portions of the commons, and claims rights over other portions, The owners and occupiers of a large area of lands and tenements in the parish of Banstead claim rights of common of pasture and estovers, and other rights over the commons.

How Rights to be affected, Compensation

37. This scheme affects the estates, interests, or rights in, over, or affecting the commons so claimed as aforesaid, only so far as in absolutely necessary for the purposes of this scheme, that is to say, by conferring on the Conservators such powers of management, improvement, and control as hereinbefore provided; and for such purpose the power of taking, restricting, diminishing, or extinguishing any such estate, interest, or right whenever it shall appear to the Conservators that the continuance of such estates, interests, or rights will interfere with the control, preservation, or improvement of the commons by the Conservators, or with any of the purposes of this scheme. So far as such estates, interests, or rights are of a profitable or beneficial nature, and are taken away or injuriously affected by this scheme, compensation in respect thereof shall be made by the Conservators to the bodies or persons entitled thereto. The amount of such compensation shall, in case of difference, be ascertained and provided in the same manner as if the same compensation were for the compulsory purchase and taking or the injuriously affecting of lands under the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts. Provided always, that, in the event of any compensation which may be agreed upon or awarded not being paid by the Conservators within six months after the date of such agreement or award, nothing in this scheme contained shall affect such estates, interests, or rights, or shall prevent the enjoyment or exercise of the same estates, interests, or rights in respect of which compensation shall have been agreed upon or awarded, as the owner or owners thereof would have been entitled to enjoy or exercise in case this scheme had not been confirmed by Act of Parliament, but without prejudice to the recovery from the Conservators by such owner or owners of any costs or damages which, in the meantime, he or they may have been put to or have sustained in relation to any such agreement or award, or any such estate, interest, or right as aforesaid.

Security for Costs

38. (a.) Upon the Conservators taking any proceedings under the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, with respect to any estate, interest, or right of a profitable or beneficial nature in, over, or affecting the commons or any part thereof, they shall, if required, give security to the owner or owners of such estate, interest, or right, to the satisfaction of the Board of Agriculture; for the costs to which he or they would be entitled under the same Acts,

(b.) Upon the Conservatory commencing, or being made defendants to, any action in a court of law against the owner of any part of the commons, they shall, if and when required, give such security for costs as the court shall prescribe, in the manner provided by the rules of such court for the time being in force.

As to Consent to Scheme

39. The lord of the manor of Banstead, and the persons deriving title under him, and, in particular, the Earl of Abingdon and the Reverend the Honourable Alberie Edward Bertie and the trustees of the will of the said John Lambert have not consented, and the Lord of the manor of Tadworth has consented, and some of the owners and occupiers of lands and tenements in the parish of Banstead have consented, and others have not consented, to their rights being affected in the manner and to the extent herein expressed.

Printed Copies of Scheme

40. Printed copies of this scheme shall at all times be sold at the office of the Conservators to all persons desiring to buy the same at a price not exceeding sixpence each.

Costs and Expenses

41. The costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to, and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, and confirming of this scheme by Act of Parliament, and the expenses incurred by the Conservators in the carrying out of this scheme, including the payment of compensation (if any) as herein-before mentioned, may be paid by the Conservators out of any moneys coming to their hands under the provisions or for the purposes of this scheme.

The Board of Agriculture, pursuant to the Board of Agriculture Act, 1889, and the Metropolitan Commons Acts, 1866 to 1878, hereby certify the foregoing scheme.

In witness whereof they have hereunto set their official seal this thirteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

T. H. ELLIOTT,
Secretary.
