

Banstead Heath spans 760 acres and is the largest of our four sites. Designated a Site of Nature Conservation Importance, it boasts a mosaic of different habitats with a landscape of traditional heath, acid grassland meadows and pockets of secondary woodland.

The Banstead Commons Conservators kindly ask visitors to respect this precious habitat and request that you always follow the Countryside Code.

<http://www.bansteadcommons.org.uk>

HORSE RIDERS AND CYCLISTS MUST REMAIN ON BRIDLEWAYS AT ALL TIMES.

- Public Bridleways
- Permissive Bridleways
- Paths
- Conservators Notice Boards
- Roads
- Railway line
- Bus Stop

Banstead Heath